

Senior Financial Analyst

June 2019

Meridian Economics is a boutique consultancy providing advanced advisory and analytics capabilities, executive-level decision support and strategic advice. We are looking to appoint a suitably qualified candidate with financial analysis expertise.

About Us

Meridian Economics is based in Rondebosch, Cape Town, with a diverse range of South African and international clients. We have a passion for shaping markets and industries to deliver sustainable benefits to society. We provide specialist advisory economics services in the areas of:

- Energy transition and power sector reform;
- Economic regulation;
- Commercial and civil litigation;
- Business Strategy;
- Infrastructure development;
- Competition economics;

Our business is expanding rapidly with increasing involvement in high profile, strategic initiatives in the energy and climate change sector in South Africa. Our practice provides exciting opportunities to make a significant contribution to the energy transition unfolding in our country and beyond.

The position

This role will involve the following tasks:

- Financial and regulatory modelling and analysis;
- Economic and energy data analysis;
- Sector-based research;
- Problem analysis;
- Policy / strategy / solution design;
- Bespoke proposal writing;
- Client and stakeholder relationship management; and
- Professional report writing and presentation design.

The candidate

The ideal candidate will have a Master's degree in finance, economics, engineering or the equivalent, and at least seven years of relevant experience. Previous experience as a professional consultant or financial or energy analyst will be an added advantage. In addition to having the technical skills to fulfil the role, the successful candidate will also be a:

- self-starter;
- innovative problem solver;
- independent and critical thinker;
- committed and rigorous professional, able to deliver high quality work;
- effective team member; and
- skilled communicator.

What we offer

Meridian Economics provides excellent opportunities for professional exposure and growth. We offer market related remuneration on a fixed term contract with a view to extend. Our working arrangements are flexible and are designed to foster creativity.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the candidate's experience and qualifications.
